

The Children of China: Written for the Children of England (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Children of China: Written for the Children of England So you want a book about China. What good guessers you are! That is just the country I wanted to write about, and had begun to write about, even before I got your letters, hoping you would choose it. I was so glad to hear from you, and to know that you are working for God, and that some of you are thinking of going yourselves to tell the poor heathen about Him. That is following in the steps of Jesus Himself, who left His own happy home to go to those who did not know God and tell them of Him; and who left behind Him that grand missionary command, with the special promise belonging to it - Go ye and teach all nations. ...And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world (Matt. xxviii. 19, 20). Will you pray very much about this book, which is so particularly your own, that God will make it a blessing to the Children of England, and that many of them may grow up to be His messengers to the Children of China?
