

Betz Held Strengths Inventory for infants and toddlers (Assessing child development through early strengths finding Book 1)

The Betz Held Strengths Inventory guides parents and educators on a journey of discovering a child's hidden strengths using play, art and developmental analysis. Parents - educators teams find their child's strength zone in video observations so that infants and toddlers can effortlessly learn. The inventory uses brain targeted teaching and the California Department of Education Desired Results Developmental Profile 2010 to help parents support their child's strengths areas for life long learning.
