

How to Act in Business: A dialogue for businesspeople in one act

Steal the secrets actors use to master your performance on the corporate stage! Based on an actual executive coaching session How to Act in Business engages readers through a play-scripted dialogue between two spirited characters--Bob, a new leader, and his Coach as Bob strives to reach a higher position in his company. With every emerging topic Bob discovers that he didn't learn much in B-school about how to act in business. As Bob considers a new approach to effective performance revealed in the coaching session, he learns to gain control in making the most active choices in planning and playing his critical roles on the business stage
