

Edith Whartons Travel Writing: The Making of a Connoisseur

The first book-length critical analysis of its kind, Edith Whartons Travel Writing is an engaging study of Whartons travel writing as the embodiment of her connoisseurship. Wright reveals how Wharton enacted a new dialectic of tourism by reconstituting what Blake Nevius calls the aesthetic spectra in her travel texts. Wharton abandoned the examples set by American predecessors such as Washington Irving and Nathaniel Hawthorne, who led the artless travelers of her parents day to lakes, waterfalls, mountains, and ruins echoing sentimental legends and chose to emulate John Ruskins precise visual observation and Bernard Berensons scientific methods of appraisal.
