

Working with People with Challenging Behaviors: A Guide for Maintaining Positive Relationships

This popular manual now offers even more guidance from psychologist Nathan Ory. It includes a wealth of compassionate methods for working with emotionally fragile, highly agitated, socially disruptive, perseverative, aggressive and other behaviors. Every behavior is addressed with prevention, guidance, training and crisis management techniques. The lively new design makes teaching and training easy. And, seven new appendices are added to this 2nd edition, which is now published in both the United States and Canada. This guide is suitable for education, behavioral health and disability professionals.
