

Egon Schiele: Life and Work

Egon Schiele (1890-1918) was one of the most influential and popular painters to emerge from the cultural ferment that characterized Vienna at the beginning of the 20th century. This illustrated biography offers insights into the artist's art and life. Schiele expert Jane Kallir provides a vibrant account of the artist's turbulent life, including the sexual escapades that were often depicted in his drawings and paintings, while presenting a sweeping overview of his art.
