

How To Teach English As A Second Language-Phonics

How To Teach English As A Second Language-Phonics is a book with special emphasis on Phonics. Phonics is not a method of teaching reading, but it is a necessary part of every good, modern method. It is the key to word mastery on how to teach English to beginners and word mastery is one of the first essentials in learning to read. Knowledge of the sounds of letters, and of the effect of the position of the letter upon its sound, is an essential means of mastering the mechanics of reading, and of enabling children to become independent readers.
