

The Rulers of Congo-Kinshasa: Felons at the Helm

This book is a tale of high treason of the Congolese people. It gives an episodic account of the numerous acts of high treason by the rulers of Congo-Kinshasa. Those acts of high treason by the sons and daughters of the land themselves have prevented the country from taking off economically in spite of all the resources the Almighty God has endowed it with. The book is also an indictment of the leaders of the country. The Democratic Republic of Congo is a failed state because its leaders have failed their people.
