

Batam & Bintan

Batam and Bintan cant make up its mind if it wants to be a cheap Singapore or Balis ugly sister. The island itself has all the potential to be a leading resort. But the fact that it was first and foremost a haven for pirates who raided ships on the Strait of Malacca. That reputation still lingers like a bad smell. The island to this day still has that infamous label as a place to acquire illegal ivory and fake jade, reports Vanya Vetto, on a lightening tour of the two islands.
