Many new countries are included in this update of the 1972 edition, as well as additional material on eleven of the countries discussed earlier. An outstanding authority in this field from each of the twenty-three countries has contributed material for his or her nations program. Topics include general education in the country, history of school library development, administration and management techniques, programs, education, and certification requirements, standards and legislation, and professional support. Among the new countries included are Finland, Germany, Hong Kong, Iceland, India, Israel, Jordan, Malaysia, Peoples Republic of China, South Africa, and Thailand. With many photographs of school libraries.
