

The Peterbilt Journals

Like a modern-day retelling of Siddhartha, Haworth leaves a wealthy background and chooses to meet the common man, gets his hands dirty, and work for a living. Along the way, he encounters people from all walks of life - forklift drivers, prostitutes, gay truckers, and crazy rednecks. Haworth goes undercover, and you will follow him from college frat house to truck driving school, then to the open road. Just weeks after getting a B.A. in English literature, Haworth defies his family and gets a blue collar job instead of the path laid out for him.
