

One Hundred Ways of Enhancing Self Concept in the Classroom (Prentice-Hall curriculum and teaching series)

This is the second edition of a tremendous bestseller y2D 30 printings in sixteen years. There is approximately one-third new material and activities with many new quotes and cartoons. The activities and examples show teachers how to build a validating, searching, positive, and success-oriented community in any classroom. Over 100 fun exercises to enhance students self-concept and self-esteem are presented . Each of the eight sections contains an introductory explanation of the theoretical base and need for the activities, as well as specific suggestions for when, where and how to use them. Activities are balanced between verbal and non-verbal, individual and group, art activities, writing exercises, and body movement. Elementary and middle school teachers and administrators and parents. A Longwood Professional Book. Also available in casebound, ISBN: 0-205-15711-4, $39.95p.
