

A Letter To International Graduate Students Ten Tips: M.Ed International Education (1)

I was born in the United States, and I absolutely love international travel. After living abroad for more than four years I decided to return to the US and see how this travel abroad might unravel within the milieu of graduate school. After completing my M.Ed. in international education, at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, upon reflection I realized that there were some things that I would have liked to have known prior to beginning my graduate study. This book aims to offer the international graduate student a few tips of advice in relation to creating a more pleasant graduate experience. .. best regards, D.D.Gaskin
