

Time To Learn Our ABC (Time To Collection Book 1)

Rachael's love for teaching children was gracefully nurtured in Tanzania, East Africa while watching her mother teach children at ABC123 preschool. She then later became an Assistant Teacher and further developed her interest in teaching. She observed a key component of a child's developing mind; a distraction-free environment encouraged the child's ability to learn new concepts. Time to learn our ABC was inspired by Rachael's daughter Aleyna. The images in the book were images her baby girl related to, which made teaching the alphabets much easier. Time to learn our ABC is the first of the Time to collection. Its simplicity and distraction-free concept makes teaching a very enjoyable experience.
