

Our Lady of the Sewers

Paul Richardson's mission - to sieve out the ancient, perverse and eccentric from the new, nice and normal - took him from coastal plain to mountainous peak. It also took him, often, by surprise. From ritual pig killings to wood-chopping competitions, from an alchemist who eats stone, to pilgrimages in the name of obscure Virgins, his journey into deep Spain is captivating, often hilarious, sometimes surprising - and always highly illuminating. Richardson writes vividly about some of the wilder characters he meets ... read OUR LADY OF THE SEWERS if you want a glimpse of the surviving truth behind tour-operator clichés, and for a view of Spain that is becoming ever harder to find SUNDAY TIMES Puckish, witty, casually erudite . delivers acute and sharply observed portraits of both people and places TLS
