

The Poet Laureate of Radio - An Interview with Norman Corwin

Norman Corwin in his own words! Known as the Poet Laureate of Radio, Norman Corwin was perhaps the greatest writer-producer-director the Golden Age of Radio ever produced, winning two Peabody Medals for his radio works. On December 28, 2004, radio legend Norman Corwin sat for an in-depth interview with filmmaker Michael James Kacey. Topics included his entry into broadcasting, his CBS years, writing and directing the first ever four-network broadcast: We Hold These Truths, his wartime trip to Britain, the One World Award, and of course, his towering radio masterpiece: On A Note Of Triumph. Mr. Corwin requested that this interview be made available to the general public. This is the published text of the interview.
