

My Hit Parade...and a Few Misses

BearManor Media, 2005. Soft cover, 180 pp. [Excerpt from back cover] RUSSELL ARMS is probably best known for his six-year stint on the famous Your Hit Parade TV show, but he was also active in many other theatrical fields. After graduating from the Pasadena Playhouse he was signed to a contract by Warner Bros. studios where he made several important pictures, including The Man Who Came to Dinner (with Bette Davis), Captains of the Clouds (with James Cagney), and By the Light of the Silvery Moon (with Doris Day). Freelancing at other studios as well, he appeared in over 20 films. Deciding to try his luck in New York he discovered he had a fine singing voice which was immediately put to good use on his own radio show on WNEW, as well as on a TV show. School Days, on the Dumont network. Next came the ABC game show Chance of a Lifetime, then The 54th St. Revue for CBS. His big break came shortly after that by his signing with Your Hit Parade, which opened up a whole world of opportunities, including recordings, nightclubs, fairs, personal appearances, and many guest spots on TV (including Ed Sullivan's show, with his hit record, Cinco Robles). He has played dinner and summer theaters all over the country: Can Can (5 versions), Bells Are Ringing, 1776, Irma LaDouce, No, No, Nanette (with the incomparable Martha Raye), and many others, both musical and non-musical. Russ was also involved with MCing beauty pageants and fashion shows. He staged and MCed the Miss World-USA Pageant for three years, and added music to the fashion shows by singing to the models as they paraded. The Russell's colorful memoir of what it was like to be a part of the heyday of the War.
