

Consolidated Library of Modern Cooking and Household Recipes, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Consolidated Library of Modern Cooking and Household Recipes, Vol. 1A glance at the board shows the water has been poured, and the first course, consisting of raw oysters, has been served, presenting the appearance shown in illustration. The oysters may be in the shell on an oyster plate, or without shells on a specially made plate. In either case the plate should be placed on top of a serving plate of decorated china. The oysters should either be thoroughly chilled, or served on cracked ice, and accompanied with a bit of lemon. Horseradish and pepper sauce are the proper articles to serve with them.
