

In the Shadow of Greatness: Five Remarkable Women Who Served the Genius of Another

The lives of five strong, creative, intelligent women who dedicated their lives to serving the genius of others. Isabel Burton, wife of explorer Sir Richard Burton. Maria Nys, first wife of Aldous Huxley. Françoise Gilot, Pablo Picasso's mistress for 10 years, and mother of two of his children. Helen Dukas, loyal assistant to Albert Einstein. Vera Slonim, wife of Vladimir Nabokov. Among fascinating friends, dramatic historic events and transcendent achievements, these women chose saintly self-effacement, emotional suffering, loneliness, and personal privation. WHY? Why choose to live in the shadow of greatness? What did each sacrifice? What did each gain? Because each woman's shadow efforts influenced the public persona of her partner, the author believes the key is in the opaqueness or transparency of the genius being served. Some geniuses are so obsessed-opaque—they are open to nothing outside themselves. Others are transparent to the work of their own genius - a witness, not a slave. How this affects the shadow women is the focus of this book.
