

Hugh Hefner: The Playboy Interviews (50 Years of the Playboy Interview)

In mid-1962, Playboy founder Hugh Hefner was given a partial transcript of an interview with Miles Davis. It covered jazz, of course, but it also included Daviss ruminations on race, politics and culture. Fascinated, Hef sent the writerfuture Pulitzer-Prize-winning author Alex Haley, an unknown at the timeback to glean even more opinion and insight from Davis. The resulting exchange, published in the September 1962 issue, became the first official Playboy Interview and kicked off a remarkable run of public inquisition that continues todayand that has featured just about every cultural titan of the last half century. To celebrate the Interviews 50th anniversary, the editors of Playboy have culled 50 of its most (in)famous Interviews and will publish them over the course of 50 weekdays (from September 4, 2012 to November 12, 2012) via Amazons Kindle Direct platform. Here are the interviews with the Playboy founder Hugh Hefner from the January 1974 and January 2000 issues.
