

Murder Mysteries (Learn English with Short Stories Book 3)

Learning English with Short Stories is a series that teaches English learners new vocabulary through fiction. Inspired By English brings you the third section of this series, packed with useful new terms and idioms in two thrilling murder mystery stories. Interactive exercises are also included to help review the vocabulary you are learning. The first story starts with a hunch from a seasoned detective about a little boys death that leads her to push too far for evidence. How far can she go within the law to bring justice to the victim? The second story takes you into the mind of a killer in the making and how a first date could go horribly wrong. You wont want to miss this action-packed section of Inspired By Englishs Learning English with Short Stories series.
