

Blind Owl Blues: The Mysterious Life and Death of Blues Legend Alan Wilson

This is the long-awaited story of Alan Wilson, musical genius and co-founder of Canned Heat. Biographer Rebecca Davis journeys through his artistic innovations, tormented personal life, obsessive love of nature, and mysterious death. A key figure in the 1960s blues revival, Wilson participated in the rediscovery of Son House, and wrote scholarly analyses of House and Robert Pete Williams. He went on to co-found pioneering blues-rock band Canned Heat, becoming an unlikely rock star. Known as Blind Owl, he was responsible for the hit songs Going Up the Country and On the Road Again.
