

STANDING ON THE EDGE OF YOUR TOMORROW, TAKE CHARGE AND WIN

Book Synopsis This book points out that we live in two worlds, the visible world (physical) and the invisible (spiritual) world. One is temporal, the other eternal. Success is dependent on choices and actions. Choices are based on properties of the invisible (spiritual) world, such as our core beliefs, philosophy, faith, hope, love, ideas, visions, knowledge, wisdom, attitude, character. When we turn good choices into positive actions in the visible physical world, we create success! We design our success in the invisible, spiritual world, We build it in the physical world. This book presents what the author has gleaned from the wisdom of the East and the West through the years, organizing them into six basic success principles or concepts. These principles are illustrated by stories of famous people from the East and the West. These stories will help the reader apply the principles to their own lives. The book can also help the reader develop his or her life's philosophy and core beliefs, improve inner strength, maintain good physical health (Chapter 4) and top mental health (Chapter 5) needed in winning the game of life, take charge and enjoy looking forward to a better and brighter tomorrow.
