

Instructive and Curious Epistles, From Catholic Clergymen of the Society of Jesus (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Instructive and Curious Epistles, From Catholic Clergymen of the Society of Jesus Presenting such varied scenes - the gorgeous splendor of the East - the naked and natural sublimity of the West - the crowded capitals of China, and the wigwam on the wild Savannah; - those invaluable volumes, the Lettres Edifiantes, have equal, and, I imagine, irresistible attractions for the Christian, the merchant, and the man of letters. They present one of the most illustrious chapters in the history of the Church, and form one of the most glorious monuments of the Society of St. Ignatius. Upon the Continent their name is eulogy - without them no library is perfect - no reading extensive. The accomplished, erudite, and polished Jesuit will be always found alike instructive, edifying, and interesting, as well in the hovel of the savage, as beneath the splendid domes of Oriental majesty - in the cabin of the Red man, as in the Palaces of Pekin, and beside the thrones of Ind.
