

A Funny Kind of Education

The children were just not thriving in school. They were unhappy, unwell and switched off. But what on earth could their parents do about it? They couldn't possibly home educate...or could they? This is the story of the excitement, panic and hilarity of life with kids when you home school. A story to move hearts and minds and get you giggling. And change your view of education forever. At last a book that dispels the myths surrounding home-education and demonstrates the lifestyle perfectly, I was nodding my head in agreement throughout. Julia Pollard. Home Educator and mum of five. <http://classroomfree.blogspot.co.uk/>...a delightful and amusing memoir which challenges conventional attitudes to education. Kate Adams. Reader in Education and author of Behaviour for Learning in the Primary School and others. Ross's work is so inspiring...Mark Boyle. Founder of the Freeconomy Community <http://www.justforthe loveofit.org/> and author of The Moneyless Man.
