Golden State Eating: Nine Tales of California Food Destinations

By
Darryl Musick

Its the most populous state in the nation. Thousands of restaurants and chefs call it home and serve the most diverse array of food around. We share our most memorable meals and trips around our home state of California. There are a few places you might have heard of and know well like Napa Valley, Monterey, and our home of Los Angeles but we will also try to show you places off the beaten path that youve never heard of or considered traveling to like Avila Beach, Ojai, and Bakersfield.Come on along as we explore the far-flung corners of the state looking for our next meal.
