

Transactions of the American Philosophical Society, Vol. 1: Held at Philadelphia, for Promoting Useful Knowledge (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Transactions of the American Philosophical Society, Vol. 1: Held at Philadelphia, for Promoting Useful Knowledge Thus by introducing the produce of those countries, which lie on the call side of the old world, and particularly those of China, this country may be improved beyond what heretofore might have been expected. And could we be so fortunate as to introduce the industry of the Chinese, their arts of living and improvements in husbandry, as well as their native plants, America might in time become as populous as China, which is allowed to contain more inhabitants than any other country, of the same extent, in the World.
