

Eccentricities of the Animal Creation (Classic Reprint)

Animal Life have been objects of interest to mankind in all ages and countries; the universality of which may be traced to that feeling which makes the whole world kin. It has been remarked with emphatic truth by a popular writer, that we have in the Bible and in the engraven and pictorial records the earliest evidence of the attention paid to Natural History in general. The navy of Turkish contributed to the wisdom of him who not only spoke of the trees from the cedar of Lebanon, even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall, but also of beasts, and of fowls, and of creeping things, and of fishes, to 1 Kings iv. 10. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
