

Shamanic Solitudes: Ecstasy, Madness and Spirit Possession in the Nepal Himalayas

An itinerary only apparently circular furrows the universe of Kulunge Rai shamanism in Nepal. A nomadic religion, generated within the space of a double geography that weaves vivid visionary foreshortenings into the flat weft of reality.

An extraordinary journey through the principal places composing the universe of shamanic reality: the call by the spirits of the wood. The dreams and initiatic visions; the vocational sickness and flight into the forest mandatory steps on the path to obtaining powers; the praxis of healing and funerary rituals, centered on the experience of a magic journey accomplished by crossing different regions of the cosmos; the body's function and corporeity within the choreutic-musical world of shamanism: a body acting as temple and simulacrum for a divine epiphany. As a frontier between worlds. A vocal and sonorous body capable of starting up the great shamanic machine.
