

Mainstreaming of children rescued from child labour: because every child has the Right to Education

This book is about the journey of children who were sometime back engaged in child labour activities but now they are rescued and are enrolled in schools to complete their primary education according to the norms of RTE. This book also talks about what problems they faced during this whole process and how they overcome these problems. This book also covers the fall backs and amendments needed in RTE so that it can make required changes in education system of India.
