

Flaming Liberal:: The Fingernail Episode (Part 1)

Issues of free speech, homophobia and anti-gay slurs all come to head when an opera singer makes a statement on fashion on Facebook about a stranger while riding a public bus in Ottawa, Ontario Canada. He posts a picture of the stranger, who has gigantic diamond-like stones pasted to his fake fingernails, and then all hell breaks loose. Valerian Ruminski didn't know that the stranger was Mr. Samnang Tep or Mrs. Jade London who had just won first prize as a drag queen during the Capital Pride weekend festivities in Ottawa. Before being able to adequately explain himself, Mr. Ruminski's unflattering comments about Mrs. London's nails and appearance hit the web and he is instantly branded a homophobe by the LGBTQ community. Read about the event and many of Mr. Ruminski's personal blogs and Facebook postings which reveal he is staunchly pro-gay, very liberal and not at all what exploded across the web and the world.
