

So You Want to Be a Celebrity? (LBC Leading Britains Conversation)

They say everyone today wants to be a celebrity. Certainly, were all happy to watch them. From reality television and talent shows to tabloid splashes and gossip magazines, the road to modern fame is littered with the hopeful, the misguided, and, occasionally, the downright cynical. Its often a tale of rags to riches and then back to rags again. So why cant we stop looking? And who exactly buys the T-shirt, wears the perfume, visits the salon? In this witty and insightful tour of the underbelly of the celebrity world, LBCs Steve Allen takes us by the hand and leads us through the highs and lows of life as a modern-day sleb why theyre there, and what weve all done to deserve this. Required reading for watchers and wannabes alike, this is your essential guide to one of the most bonkers aspects of modern Britain.
