

History of India, in Nine Volumes: Vol. IV - Mediaeval India from the Mohammedan Conquest to the Reign of Akbar the Great

First published in 1906, this classic nine-volume history of the nation of India places it among the storied lands of antiquity, alongside Egypt, China, and Mesopotamia. Edited by American academic ABRAHAM VALENTINE WILLIAMS JACKSON (1862-1937), professor of Indo-Iranian languages at Columbia University, it offers a highly readable narrative of the Indian people and culture through to the time of its publication, when the nation was still part of the British Empire. Volume IV, Part 2 of Mediaeval India from the Mohammedan Conquest to the Reign of Akbar the Great, by British scholar STANLEY LANE-POOLE (1854-1931), features entertaining and enlightening treatments of: the united empire of Akbar the Great Akbar's reforms: the divine faith the great Moghul and European travellers Shah Jahan the Magnificent Aurangzib, the puritan emperor the fall of the Moghul empire and much more. This beautiful replica of the 1906 first edition includes all the original illustrations.
