

Dance to a Different Piper: A Memoir by Sally Watson

A Memoir by Historical Fiction Author, Sally Watson. The memories of a child born in 1924: a kitten in a kennel, totally out of step with her peers but dancing to her own piper. With neither the will nor inclination to conform, Sally flatly refused even to consider the limited choice for women then: wife, mother, nurse, schoolteacher or typist. Gifted with fierce independence and a driving curiosity that has never waned; a flair for writing, a passion for words, colors, patterns, and a strong sense of the absurd, she has created 25 published books, her own destiny and a joyous and adventurous life told in these memoirs.
