

Professor : How to be a Professor

Professor : How to Be a Professor is a comprehensive compendium, comprising entire journey that a professor takes from his life of a student to a full professor, emirates or even a dean of a department. Usually, we think that a simple lecturer, teaching in a college is a professor and this proposition is not wrong. Everybody teaching in a college or university is called a professor. However, there is a difference. This book shows you where the difference lies, how you should complete your major in a subject, go for doctorate, join teaching assistantship or research intern of a professor, and then following their path, become yourself a distinguished professor. As a professor you are also a distinguished teacher. The book starts with the profession of teaching, a teachers duties, qualities, elaborating on educational systems, specialization, phases in professors career, monetary benefits and tips on how to polish your research skills, lecture delivery and ultimately the culmination of your service. Every chapter has a checklist given at the end, summarizing entire chapter in a few bullet points, so that you should not face any difficulty in understanding. Even after reading this entire book, you feel that it was just a small booklet you have grasped in just a single reading.
