

Power of Teaching--The Science of the Art: Behavioral Pathway to Teaching Excellence

Atlantic Research Partners has created, Power of Teaching, an effective tool that provides assistance, guidance and support for teachers and those who work with teachers to improve teaching and learning. Based on significant and peer-reviewed research, the findings on the HOW of teaching provide constructive holistic and behaviorally measurable guidance to help teachers improve student learning. Power of Teaching is based on what teaching researchers and pedagogy experts tell us does work to help teachers become more effective. Learning about and practicing the Power Sources in Power of Teaching can make a huge difference in how teachers teach and how students learn.
