

Transactions of the Bristol and Gloucestershire Arch?ological Society, Vol. 27: For 1904 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Transactions of the Bristol and Gloucestershire Arch?ological Society, Vol. 27: For 1904 This meeting proved to be a most successful and instructive one. Bredon, Strensham, and Pershore were visited, and although it is not the first time the Society has been there - Bredon being included in the programme in 1885 and 1895, and the other two places on the latter date - the ground was new to many members. What made the meeting so attractive was the arrangement whereby the journey from Bredon to Pershore was made by river, an innovation that proved very acceptable. The weather was delightfully fine, and the large number of members present had a most enjoyable day under the best conditions. The party totalled between 160 and 170 - a record by about fifty. The first place visited was Bredon, and the party enjoyed the walk through the picturesque Worcestershire village, with its thatched cottages, to the parish church, where the members were received by the Rev. G. J. Saywell (curate), in the absence of the Rev. H. G. Cavendish-Brown (rector). About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
