

Richard Andrew - Called to Paint

This beautifully illustrated book, Richard Andrew: Called to Paint, chronicles the life, artwork, and achievements of the 20th century artist, Richard Andrew. Popular for his deeply sensitive portraits and breathtaking landscapes, the artist was most recognized for his contribution to honor the 104th Massachusetts Infantry that performed with great distinction during World War I. His extraordinary murals line the walls of the third floor of the Massachusetts State House Legislative Chambers. With his characteristic curly brown hair and intense blue eyes, Richard Andrew delighted his Mass Art students for 36 years. A man of deep intellectual merit, his art reflects his intuitive talent.
