

Good Horn, Good Brakes and Good Luck: Travels through Africa, India and Nepal

Four thousand miles, seven countries, the Sahara Desert, lots of guards with machine guns asking for presents, and a minefield. When three ordinary blokes from England decide to drive a clapped out car to the Gambia in North Africa it is the start of an unusual adventure. Despite all the odds, the three clueless travellers survived to tell the tale, so a year later decided to have another trip, this time through India and Nepal ... in an autorickshaw! This is the story of both trips with the trials and tribulations along the way. Its about ordinary people have an extraordinary adventure.
