

Expat Intelligence: Relax & Make Yourself at Home Abroad: Hilarious Curiosities, Etiquette and Serious Resources for Long-Term Travel in Europe, Asia and South America

Here is a light hearted guide for all of those who want to travel to far-away and sometimes weird & crazy countries for your own and private reasons, while doing things your way and retaining a speck of self-determination and style. A long time ago the author was like you, on the brink of leaving everything behind, intrigued with starting fresh in different hemispheres and cultures. Claude, a certified expat, who has lived in many places from Marbella, Spain via Japan and Central America, shows you in a precise but humorous way on how to hit the reset button and make yourself comfortable in different situations and hemispheres. This practical guide gives you tons of information combined with brave tales, sometimes disturbing and sometimes hilarious. This book shows you how to be successful anywhere; it introduces popular countries to expatriates and helps those who haven't made a decision on their new destination and home country yet.
