

New Curiosities of Literature, Vol. 1 of 2: And Book of the Months (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from New Curiosities of Literature, Vol. 1 of 2: And Book of the Months A Preface may with some show of likelihood be compared to the confessional, wherein the public listens and absolves, while the author plays the part of penitent, although it often chances that the culprit is rather bent upon proving how little than how much he has been in fault.
