

Folk-Tales of Bengal (Classic Reprint)

ErACE. In my Peasant Life in Bengal I make the peasant boyG ovinda spend some hours every evening in listening to stories told by an old woman, who was called Sambhu smother, and who was the best story-teller in the village. On reading that passage, Captain R. C. Temple, of theB engal Staff Corps, son of the distinguished Indian administratorS ir Richard Temple, wrote to me to say how interesting it would be to get a collection of those unwritten stories which old women in India recite to little children in the evenings, and to ask whether I could not make such a collection.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
