

Strategies for Struggling Readers: Step by Step

This book combines hot topics with traditional topics to provide a wide range of strategies that effectively assist struggling readers. Unique to this book is the way it presents successful strategies in word identification, comprehension, fluency, and motivation and strategies to assess students in each of these areas. Each strategy is set up with step-by-step directions that explain how it should be implemented. A six-part organization includes detailed information for when struggling readers need to improve interest, attitude, motivation, word recognition, comprehension, and fluency; and assessing children who may be struggling with reading. For reading teachers.
