

The Four Seasons

What Do You See from Your Window? If you're like Lydea, a cat who watches the world from her owners' picture window, you might spend your day watching passing cars or the mailman. But Lydea notes the changing seasons—from summer to fall, to winter, and finally to spring. Join Lydea as she studies the green world of summer, the colorful leaves of autumn, the snow and cold of winter, and the rain and flowers of spring. As Lydea observes, there is a reason for each one. In a fun style that is both educational and entertaining, this book's primary couplet verse provokes the imagination and promotes reading fluency for many young readers.
