

La Malinche (Spanish Edition)

A raíz de la primera victoria de Hernan Cortes en territorio americano, se le entregaron veinte esclavas. Una de ellas, a la que se bautizo con el nombre de Marina, devenido Malintzin, Malinche, La Malinche, habia nacido mas al norte y habia llegado a estas tierras de lengua maya como hablante de nahuatl. Semanas mas tarde, Jeronimo de Aguilar, naufrago rescatado en la peninsula de Yucatan y el unico entre los espanoles familiarizado con el maya, al enterarse de que una de las esclavas tributadas hablaba con las lugarenas, se dirigió a ella en dicho idioma. Asi, entre el nahuatl, el maya y el espanol, se fundo el entendimiento y tuvo lugar un encuentro de culturas ante el afan de conquista de Cortes. Tal es la importancia de una mujer que fue senora de dos mundos y que en ambos dejo un rastro imborrable. Este relato puntual y subyugante de la Conquista nos permite atestiguar como irrumpe en nuestra historia una mujer cuya presencia es aqui convincente y admirable, muy distinta de la que se tergiversa con el concepto despectivo de malinchismo.
