

Greenredpurple and the king toad (The Footprint Collection Book 2)

Greenredpurple is a green colored wild boar who turns red when shes happy and purple when shes sad or frightened. This curious little animal is dearly loved by Mia and Conque, the children of Mother and Father Caveman. However, since this animal was very spoilt and always ate everything she found, father Caveman decided that Greenredpurple had to leave his cave, to the despair of his children. However, a surprise awaits our dear wild boar because, by chance she shall be frozen by an avalanche of snow together with Croaky, a toad who believes he is the king of the animals, waking up in our world of today and no longer in the Ice Age. What surprises await Greenredpurple and Croaky now? In our next story: The blue flower
