

Journal of the Folk-Song Society, Vol. 3 (Classic Reprint)

THE Executive Committee reports with pleasure the steady growth of the Folk-Song Society. During the year which ended May 31st, 1908, thirty-five new members have been admitted, and, although the society has lost thirteen subscribers through resignation or death, it has at present two hundred and thirty-six members. It is with deepest regret that the Committee has to record the death of the eminent musicians, Dr. Joseph Joachim and Dr. Edvard Grieg, who honoured the society not only with their membership but with their sympathy and encouragement. Three other members, Mrs. Rafe Leycester, Dr. J. Culwick and Dr. F. J. Sawyer, have also passed away, all of whom were actively interested in folk-music. Much excellent work has been done during the past year in collecting folk-songs and dances, and in popularising them by publication and performance. The following list, which does not claim to be exhaustive, shows in what parts of England members have collected since the last Report was issued:

Bedfordshire: Miss L. Edna Waiter. Dorset: Miss L. E. Walter and Mr. H. E. D. Hammond. Derbyshire: Mr. C. Sharp. Devonshire and Gloucestershire: Mr. Percy Grainger, Mr. Harry Piggott, Mr. C. Sharp. Hampshire: Dr. G. B. Gardiner. Herefordshire: Mrs. Leather. Lancashire: Miss Annie G. Gilchrist. Lincolnshire: Mr. P. Grainger. London: Miss L. Broadwood, Mr. P. Grainger, and Mr. C. Sharp. Middlesex: Mr. P. Grainger. Norfolk: Dr. Ralph Vaughan-Williams. Oxfordshire: Mr. C. Sharp. Shropshire: Mr. George Kaye-Butterworth. Somerset: Mr. C. Sharp. Suffolk: Dr. R. Vaughan-Williams. Sussex: Mr. G. Kaye-Butterworth, Mr. Walter Ford, Mr. C. Sharp, Dr. R. Vaughan-Williams. Worcestershire: Mr. P. Grainger. In Scotland, Mr. Gavin Greig and the Rev. J. B. Duncan have continued their important work of collecting on behalf of the New Spalding Club of Aberdeen,
