

Sensitive Stories of Corporate World (Management Case Studies)

Shyam Bhatawdekar used his multifaceted personality of top notch business executive, highly sought after business consultant, eminent management guru, prolific author and presenter par excellence in writing these sensitive stories of corporate world for this book. His interactions with and keen study of the people in the business world, the corporate companies and life in general paved way to write on those subtle aspects of human life that easily get ignored but come to think of it, they are the real makeup of the life at large. The book therefore includes such shades of corporate and business life and life in general that touch the soft and sensitive spots of human nature.
