When You Purchase Hair Stylist Riches, You are Helping Women With Cancer: Look Good Feel Better is a non-medical, brand-neutral public service program that teaches beauty techniques to cancer patients to help them manage the appearance-related side effects of cancer treatment. Look Good Feel Better group programs are open to all women with cancer who are undergoing chemotherapy, radiation, or other forms of treatment. In the United States alone, more than 700,000 women have participated in the program, which now offers 14,500 group workshops nationwide in more than 3,000 locations. Thousands of volunteer beauty professionals support Look Good Feel Better. All are trained and certified by the Personal Care Products Council Foundation, the American Cancer Society, and the Professional Beauty Association National Cosmetology Association at local, statewide, and national workshops. Other volunteer health care professionals and individuals also give their time to the program. Charlotte is giving Look Good Feel Better, the first $25,000 from sales of this book. So even though you are educating yourself, you are also making a difference in lives of women facing cancer.
