

New Jersey: A photographic treasure

Visual treasures are found throughout New Jersey. Photographic artist, Walter Choroszewski, presents this special collection of images featuring treasured icons like Barnegat Lighthouse and the Great Falls, as well as intimate vignettes of the people, natural beauty and historic sites of our state. The book features colorful imagery from every corner of the state. Walter Choroszewski has been traveling the roads of New Jersey for over twenty years, revisiting the special places and continuing to find new views. Walter invites us to join him on this visual journey to share in the many treasures he has found. This is Walter Choroszewski's 10th photographic book, fourth in this series of New Jersey state books.
